

Incentives and the Design of Mechanisms in Open Science

International Workshop, January 11th 2013

Organized by GREThA - Université de Bordeaux, France

Conference program

(Conference venue: Musée des Arts Décoratifs, 39 Rue Bouffard, 33000 Bordeaux)

9.20 - 9.30 am: Welcome and introductory address

9.30 - 11 am: First session, chair Ghislaine Filliatreau (Observatoire des Sciences et Techniques)

· Reinhilde Veugelers (Katolieke Universiteit Leuven): Taste for science, job (mis)match and impact on productivity

· Jean-Marc Schlenker (Institut de Mathématique de Toulouse): Productivity and mobility in academic research: evidence from mathematics (with Pierre Dubois and Jean-Charles Rochet)

11.00 - 11.15am: Coffe and Tea Break

11.15 - 12.45: Second session, chair Marco Ottaviani (IGIER, Bocconi University)

· Emeric Henry (Science Po Paris): Research and the approval process (with Marco Ottaviani)

· Albert Banal Estañol (Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona): Endogeneous matching and project design in university-industry collaboration (with Inés Macho-Stadler and David Perez-Castrillo)

12.45 - 2.00 pm: Lunch at the musée

2.00 - 3.30pm: Third session, chair Inés Macho-Stadler (Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona)

· Gabrielle Demange (Paris School of Economics): A ranking method based on handicaps.

· Nicolas Carayol (Gretha, Université de Bordeaux): Dominance relations when both quantity and quality matter (with Agenor Lahatte)

3.30 - 3.45 pm: Coffe and Tea Break

4.00 - 5.30 pm: Fourth session, chair Francesco Lissoni (Gretha, Université de Bordeaux)

· Michel Lubrano (Greqam, Université Aix Marseille): The prime role of social capital in scientific production

· Jacques Mairesse (CREST & UNU-MERIT): tba

5.30 - 6.00 pm: Final discussion

8.00 pm: Conference Diner